Fear Became Fascination

Mikayla Rodriguez

Sorrow and worry occupied the air.
A novel virus sent the world in despair.
Masked smiles and conversations.
Social distance felt like isolation.
I had an opportunity to learn,
rather than be overturn'd.
In search for an explanation,
Fear became fascination.
I realized that I was capable,
despite the means available.
I was firm to find a purpose,
And so, I chose an act of service.
Dedicated to lessons of science,
hopeful beings formed an alliance.
Sharing one goal - to learn.
